

Able Engineering is currently seeking a Nova Scotia Land Surveyor to join our team in our Annapolis Valley office!

Job Description

- Develop survey plans, methods, and procedures for conducting legal surveys
- Conduct property research, thorough analysis, and review
- Complete boundary, subdivision, and topographic field surveys
- Complete construction layouts
- Conduct data processing and calculations
- Create detailed survey plans using Carlson software
- Conduct plan review and final checks
- Manage the daily activities of survey field crews
- Operate survey instruments and devices
- Prepare detailed field notes of survey activities

Qualifications

- Be licensed as a Nova Scotia Land Surveyor (or ability to become a candidate)
- A degree in Surveying/Geomatics or a diploma and CBEPS certificate
- Minimum of 2-3 years of relevant work experience
- Experience using Total Stations and RTK GPS
- Familiarity with engineering, architectural and survey plans
- Experience with Carlson software, MS Office Suite of products and project management software
- Chainsaw certification considered an asset
- Valid driver's license
- Team player, ability to work under pressure, ability to work in a fast-paced environment, strong organizational skills, close attention to detail, willingness to travel within Nova Scotia.

Salary will be determined based on qualifications and experience.

To apply for this position, please forward your resume to hr@ableinc.ca